

Welcome to the 2022 CGCI Symposium!

We hope you make friends
and have fun while you're in San Diego.

To do well on the exams:

Study the written material.

Listen carefully.

Study hard.

Sleep well.

Review your notes.

Put your name/number
on each exam sheet.

Write answers legibly.

Don't worry about your score.

Then, have a safe trip home!

IMPORTANT SYMPOSIUM INFORMATION

Any interested person may attend Symposium full or part time. Any judge wishing credit does not need the approval of the Credentials Chairman.

However, if you are taking this symposium for credit, refer to the NGC FSS Policy statement effective July 1, 2021 for requirements.

Your registration must be postmarked by June 15, 2022.

INSTRUCTORS

Design

Gina Jogan will provide an in-depth study of Multi-Rhythmic and Transparency Designs. She is an NGC accredited master flower show judge, as well as a certified instructor for both flower show schools and symposiums in the areas of design and flower show procedure.

Gina has made it her instructional hallmark to demystify the design process. She holds a leadership position at all levels of garden club work in Florida.

Horticulture

David Robson will discuss Pelargoniums and fruits and vegetables. David Robson is a retired horticulture and pesticide safety specialist with the University of Illinois.

A graduate of Iowa State University and University of Illinois, he has taught for more than 41 years. He is an NGC Master Judge, and Flower Show School and Symposium instructor, teaching Horticulture and Flower Show Procedures.

He currently serves as the Plant America Committee chairman on the NGC Board of Directors and is a trustee of the NGC PH&E Fund. We hope this Symposium will be a great experience
